BONUS BILL BINDING JUDGE DECIDES IN TEST CASE

Jefferson City, Jan. 7.—Missouri's soldier bonus law is valid and binding, but it is not yet in effect and cannot be until after the expiration of ninety days from the date of final adjournment of the second special session of the legislature.

In other words, while the court holds the bond issue voted by people valid, the enabling act, providing for issuance of the bonds is subject to referendum and cannot be effective until after the time limit has expired.

This opinion was written by Judge A. M. Woodson. It was concurred in by Chief Justice James T. Blair and by Judges Graves, Walker and Elder. Judge David E. Blair filed a separate concurring opinion and Judge Higbee filed an opinion dissenting in part to the majority opinion, but concurring in the result.

Used as a test Case

The test case, filed by W. T. Rutherford, St. Louis, special counsel for the state board of fund commissioners and was brought in behalf of Margaret Fahy, a taxpayer of St. Louis, sought to enjoin State Auditor Hackman from registering the bonus bonds. It was brought before Judge John G. Slate of the Cole county circuit court.

Judge Slate overruled a demurrer filed by Attorney General Barrett, to the proceedings filed by Mr. Rutherford. This was in effect holding the bond issue invalid and the attorney general at once appealed to the supreme court.

Regrets Even Short Delay

Judge Woodson regrets in his opinion that an opinion of his "should work even a slight postponement to the disposition of this fund so rightly deserved by the beneficiaries thereof, even for the short space of six or seven weeks, but we feel that the heroes would not want us to run counter to former judicial rulings."

Twenty years experience in watch and clock repairing and fitting glasses. Experience counts. C. S. Johnson, jeweler and optician. 500t Shop in the Courier first.

ODD FELLOWS' GRAND SIRE DIES IN TORONTO

Joseph Oliver, grand sire of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, died in Toronto, Canada, Monday, after an illness of three months. He was 79 years old.

He was a member of the Odd Fellows for many years and was head of the Grand Lodge before being chosen to the highest office in the order in North America. He also was a past master of the Masonic fraternity.

For a number of years he was president and manager of a lumber firm bearing his name. He held various public offices here, including that of Mayor in 1903-09.

OPTICIST, 105, MAKES COFFIN FOR HIS OWN USE IN 20 YEARS

James M. Long, 105 years old, Longdale, Okla., is an epitome of longevity and optimism.

Recently he finished making a coffin for himself. After finishing the coffin Mr. Long wrote a letter to Mrs. M. Dodge, a niece, 1033 Brookline Ave., informing her of the work, and stating that the coffin had been stored, since he did not expect to use it for at least 20 years.

Mrs. Dodge said Saturday that her uncle is in perfect health and that his eyesight is excellent, despite his age.

He was born in Virginia in 1815 and lived there until 1843, when he moved to Missouri. He fought with the Confederate army under General Price, was captured at Cowskin Prairie and kept in the famous Rock Island military prison until the end of the war.

Mr. Long was the oldest child of a family of 10 boys and six girls. His first wife was a granddaughter of Pres. John Quincy Adams. Her maiden name was McComb.

Long says he chewed tobacco and used liquor before the W. C. T. U. and Volstead were heard of. He also refuses to worry, even about prohibition, although he admits that it is rather inconvenient.—Kansas City Star.

He is a brother of Mrs. Mollie Wilson of this city.

IF YOU ARE A HUSTLER GET IN THE RACE AND WIN SEDAN

A Wealth of Prizes Awaits Most Enterprising Campaigners in the "Everybody Wins" Contest

Many complimentary remarks are being heard with reference to the progressiveness and liberality on the part of the Chariton Courier in offering a brand new 1922 model Ford Sedan, worth $737.00 and other rich and attractive prizes in its big subscription contest just starting, and which comes to a close Wednesday, February 15th.

The undertaking, while colossal in a way, has met with instantaneous favor in the eyes of the newspaper reading public of Keytesville and Chariton County, and if the advance interest manifested be taken as a criterion the venture is already an assured success. Never before in this section of the state has there been a campaign of such magnitude where the time was so short and the conditions so easy and liberal as the one just announced by this paper.

Ford Sedan is Big Feature

One feature alone is enough to make it the most talked of event in recent years. That feature is the offer of awarding a brand new 1922 model Ford Sedan, fully equipped, worth $737.00, to the candidate securing the greatest number of votes in this competition.

There have been other contests in Chariton county where the first prize was a piano or a pony and cart, but
